4. Notice

- ① In application, international students must have “College Student” visas. Anyone with a “Short-term Resident” visa cannot apply for the International House. International students whose period of stay expires before April 1, 2020, must renew his/her period of stay before move-in.
- ② A newly arrived self-supporting student is required to attach a copy of Permission of Acceptance or Certificate of Acceptance and Certificate of Eligibility to an Application Form or Application Receipt.
- ③ An international student who receives more than 147,000 yen per month as his/her staying expense (in the form of either “salary” or “scholarship money”) from various organizations, is not allowed to apply for the International House. *The amount of “145,000 yen per month” is equivalent to a monthly salary of a Japanese government-funded graduate-level international student.
- ④ Since Japanese government scholarship students (graduate-level) receive a monthly salary of about 147,000 yen, they must move into the couple's room in principle.

- ⑤ Applications for International House accommodation are not allowed in the following circumstances:
- single room occupancy, including couples/families for international applicants whose period of stay is 12 months or over.
 - couple & family occupancy for international applicants whose period of stay is 36 months or over, except for international applicants in the Graduate School of Medicine, Joint Graduate School of Veterinary Sciences, and United Graduate School of Veterinary Sciences whose period of stay is 48 months or over.

⑥ International student who are planning to take leaves of absence from the University, are not allowed to apply for the International House.

⑦ In case of an international student, visa status of his/her family members must be either “Dependent” or “Student” for application. “Cultural Activities,” “Short term stay,” “Researcher,” and other status of residence which qualify for working permits are not permitted. In addition, parents and brothers/sisters of an applicant are not permitted to live together in the International House.

⑧ In case of a married couple, a record of stay in the International House is determined by either a husband or a wife with a longer record of stay.

⑨ In case of applying for a couple/family room, husband and wife/family members must move into the International House together.

⑩ International student who have a child, should apply family room.

⑪ In case that either of a husband or a wife is an international researcher, he or she must apply for the International House C.

⑫ Those who own a car are required to show your “Driver’s License” and “Optional Insurance(Auto Insurance Policy).”

*Students who park at the International House need Japanese Driver’s license.

⑬ Permission of residence could be invalidated if an approved student did not move into the International House within 10 days from the designated starting day of residence.

⑭ Utility costs are actual costs and it occurs from the first day of the permitted occupancy period.

⑮ All residents must purchase the National Healthcare Insurance to live in the International House.

⑯ A resident who is ordered to leave the International House, or is given a warning from the Director of the International House, his or her application for the International House shall never be accepted.

⑰ If an application includes false information, the permission of residence of the applicant in question is immediately invalidated, and his/her application to the International House will never be accepted in the future.

5. Director of the International House can withdraw the Permission of Residence, and can order the residents in question to leave should they fall into the following category:

- (1) Those who do not meet the requirements of residence one month after his or her moving into the International House.
- (2) Neglect of the payment of deposit or rent or utilities even after a reminder was sent.
- (3) Those who make serious offenses during his/her stay in the International House.
